PROFILE:

Lombard Bank Malta plc was registered in Malta as a limited liability company in May 1969. Until 1975, it was entirely owned by Lombard North Central plc – then part of the UK Natwest Banking Group. In April 1994, the Bank's shares were admitted to the Official List of the Malta Stock Exchange. Today, Lombard's largest shareholder is the Cypriot bank Cyprus Popular Bank Public Company Ltd. (CPB), which holds 48.4% of Lombard Bank. Currently, CPB is going through a winding-down process as part of the country's banking sector restructuring. However, Lombard Bank has always operated and been managed independently of its major shareholder.

Lombard Bank is licensed as a credit institution under the Banking Act, 1994 and is an authorised currency dealer and financial intermediary. It also holds a Category 2 Investment Services licence issued by the Malta Financial Services Authority (MFSA) in terms of the Investment Services Act, 1994. The Bank is a member of the Malta Stock Exchange (MSE) for the purpose of carrying out stockbroking services on the MSE and also a member of the Depositor Compensation Scheme and the Investor Compensation Scheme.

The Bank's network consists of 7 branches which provide an extensive range of personal, business and international banking services. In addition, Lombard also has a Wealth Management arm.

Through its fully-owned subsidiary Redbox Limited, Lombard owns a 70.32% stake in MaltaPost plc – the largest postal services company and the Universal Service Provider (USP) in Malta.
