Commentary

HSBC Bank Malta p.l.c. ('the bank') reported a profit before tax of \pounds 6.8m for the year ended 31 December 2015. This represents a decline of \pounds .3m or 10% on the previous year. Reflecting strong underlying profitability and capital strength, the bank announced an increase in the dividend payout ratio from 55% to 65%.

This result was achieved in an environment characterised by unprecedented low levels of interest rates, deflationary pressures and slow growth in the eurozone and expanded regulatory demands.

On an adjusted basis, excluding the effect of non-recurring expenses for the early voluntary retirement provision, profit before tax was up ⊕m or 18% on the previous year.

	€000	€000
Reported profit before tax	46,772	52,121
Provision for early voluntary retirement	14,668
Adjusted profit before tax	61,440	52,121

During the year the bank continued to build a sound regulatory capital base. Its common equity tier 1 capital increased to 12.4% from 10.6% at the end of 2014. At this level, the bank performed strongly against its regulatory capital requirements. This created a capacity for the bank to increase the dividend payout ratio to 65% of the profit after tax this year, up 10 percentage points from 55% in 2014. During the year, the bank set aside €1m to bring the General Banking risk provision stipulated by the Banking Rule 09 to a 100% of the requirement. Adjusted for this contribution, the effective dividend payout rate will be 62% compared to 45% in 2014.

Profit attributable to shareholders amounted to €29.5m resulting in earnings per share of 8.2 cent compared to 9.3 cent in 2014. The Board recommends a final gross dividend of 2.6 cent per share (1.7 cent per share net of tax). Together with the interim dividend paid in September 2015, the total gross dividend for the year will be 7.7 cent per share (5.0 cent per share net of tax), which represents a 20% increase compared to 2014 dividend adjusted for the bonus share issue in April 2015. The final dividend will be paid on 19 April 2016 to shareholders who are on the bank's register of shareholders at 16 March 2016.

All three main business lines – Retail Banking and Wealth Management, Commercial Banking and Global Banking and Markets – were profitable during the year under review.

Net interest income was up by 4% to €127m compared with €122.6m in 2014. The dynamics in the net interest income were largely impacted by the prevailing low interest rate environment: lending margins on both retail and commercial loan portfolios were under pressure, yields on the investment portfolio declined despite the growing portfolio balance as maturing higher yielding bonds could be replaced only at significantly lower rates. The drop in interest income was offset by the reduction in the cost of funding as deposit rates continued declining and more customers moved to shorter-dated deposits.

Net fee income increased by 2% compared with 2014. The Group earned higher asset management fees in the insurance subsidiary. This was offset by a decrease in the commission income from custody, fund administration and stock brokerage as a result of the bank's strategy to scale down in these areas.

HSBC Life Assurance (Malta) Limited reported a profit before tax of 8.8m, which is in line with the profit reported in 2014.

A lower gain of 0.7m on the sale of financial investments was reported in 2015 compared to 1.7m in 2014, reflecting limited re-investment opportunities in the environment characterised by low interest rates.

Operating expenses of $\notin 18.8$ m were $\notin 20.2$ m or 20% higher compared with previous year. The early voluntary retirement programme launched at the end of the year under review, as part of the bank's efforts to improve productivity and cost effectiveness, was the main driver for the increase in 2015 costs.

Excluding this one-off investment that is expected to yield sustainable savings in future years, operating expenses were up 6% compared with 2014. Underlying expenses increased due to additional compliance and regulatory costs associated with further strengthening of the compliance function and new regulatory obligations - contribution to the Single Resolution Fund and new supervisory fees of the Single Supervisory Mechanism established in the end of 2014. Furthermore, the increased cost of outsourced services as a result of currency fluctuations and new services related to the transferred insurance portfolio affected 2015 costs.

The adjusted cost efficiency ratio, that compares normalised operating expenses to net operating income, was at 59% compared with 57% in 2014.

Loan impairment charges were €10.8m compared to €2.5m in 2014. In line with last year, the Board maintained a cautious approach to provisioning for non-performing loans. In particular, in 2015 a decision was taken to set aside impairment provision for retail exposures which have been non-performing for a certain number of years. These exposures are well covered by collateral. The Board felt that it would be prudent to provide for these loans due to the long legal process to repossess collateral. The level of loan impairment charges was also affected by the technical change in the accounting methodology for suspended interest in 2015. Instead of reversing the accrued interest related to newly downgraded facilities from the income statement, the bank started recognising additional impairment charges. While the effect of the old and the new methodology on the profit is the same, the new approach results in a higher level of interest income but also higher impairment charges.

Despite the total drawdowns of nearly €50m during 2015, net loans and advances to customers at €3,285m were 0.5% up on 2014. The higher pace of early repayments observed in the last two years in both the commercial and retail loan books continued in 2015. Supported by government incentives for first time buyers, the mortgage book, the bank's largest lending portfolio, continued to perform well resulting in a net growth of over €0m in 2015. This, however, was offset by the reduction in corporate lending where repayments were higher as a result of the persistent low interest rate environment.

Asset quality improved during 2015 with non-performing exposures at 8% of gross loans compared to 8.9% in 2014. The percentage of tangible security held against the bank's loan portfolio remains high.

Customer accounts continued to grow in the year under review and reached €4,950m, an increase of 1.7% from 31 December 2014. Notably, deposits from retail customers, the most stable funding base, demonstrated robust growth and increased by 6.5%. During 2015, liquidity position of the bank remained solid with an advances-to-deposits ratio of 66.4%.

The financial investments portfolio increased 4.3% year on year. The bank maintains this portfolio of highly rated instruments well diversified and conservatively positioned.

Andrew Beane, Chief Executive Officer at HSBC Bank Malta p.l.c., said: "In 2015 the operating environment for eurozone banks remained difficult with record low interest rates and higher operating costs, principally driven by new regulation. HSBC Malta's underlying profitability was strong and our signature capital strength and conservative risk appetite enabled the bank to perform well in the European Central Bank's regulatory assessments.

Since I became Chief Executive in November my focus has been on reviewing the bank's strategy and re-focusing the business to restore growth. We have taken decisive action to reduce costs, resolved a long-running union dispute and made a number of key leadership appointments. And our strong balance sheet has enabled the bank, with the support of our regulator, to increase the dividend pay-out ratio from 55% to 65% so that a greater share of profits is returned to our owners.

While the global economy shows some signs of increased stress, the local outlook remains more favourable and HSBC is open for business. As CEO I am committed to ensure that HSBC facilitates growth in Malta's economy and creates value for our 10,000 local shareholders while continuing to operate to the highest regulatory standards. We will achieve this by investing in our team of banking professionals in order to raise customer service standards, by using HSBC's unique international network to connect Malta's economy to the global financial system and by sustaining strict cost discipline. Despite the challenges our industry faces, HSBC Malta is in a strong position to navigate these and I am confident about the future."
